Welcome to our third concert of the season. Today we perform music by well-known composers Vaughan Williams, Grieg, Mozart, and Dvořák. We begin with Edmonton's John Estacio and his King Arthur and Merlin, which is the overture for a ballet he wrote for Cincinnati Ballet in 2014 entitled King Arthur's Camelot. 49th Parallel is a British film from 1941. In the Gulf of St. Lawrence, German U-boat U-37 sinks a Canadian freighter and then evades the RCN and RCAF by sailing into Hudson Bay. While a raiding party of six is ashore in search of food and fuel, RCAF bombers sink the submarine. And the chase is on! Vaughan Williams wrote the prelude but not the rest of the film score. Next, we feature our wind and horn sections plus double bass with Grieg's Norwegian Dance.

Mozart wrote his Sinfonia Concertante for violin and viola in Paris in 1779. This work is his most successful realisation in this cross-over genre between symphony and concerto. We are pleased and proud to present our very own soloists Erica Mancuso, violin and Anya Mallinger, viola.

Dvořák's Ninth Symphony is one of the greatest symphonies in the orchestral canon. Dvořák explores a wide range of orchestral tone colour, mood, and emotion in four distinct yet unified movements. It was met with wild enthusiasm at its debut performance in Carnegie Hall in 1893.

Thank you for joining us today and please, do enjoy the concert.
