ABOUT

A symphony orchestra exerts a profound influence on its community, acting as a cornerstone of cultural enrichment. Countless studies underscore its significance as a key factor in attracting individuals to urban areas. Moreover, the orchestra serves as a catalyst for social cohesion, offering avenues for volunteerism, and providing invaluable educational opportunities.

At the heart of the Sault Symphony Orchestra's mission is the commitment to bring music to life through exceptional concerts and active community involvement.

In addition to our regular season performances, the symphony organizes educational events tailored for children. Programs like Mini Maestro's offer families a chance to bond over timeless musical pieces while nurturing the experiences of young minds. Our education outreach extends to local schools, where we aim to entertain and educate students through captivating performances that ignite a passion for music. Furthermore, Sault Symphony Orchestra members extend their community outreach commitment by visiting retirement homes, where they bring the joy of music directly to residents through uplifting and engaging concerts.

We are honoured to have Stephen Mallinger as our Artistic Director bringing new creativity and direction to the Sault Symphony Orchestra.

Join us for the exciting and engaging concerts we have planned for you this season.
